

L. P. Fisher, newspapers advertising agents, 21 Merchants' Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. This paper is kept on file in his office.

The Reason in a Nutshell.

The goldbugs in their crusade against silver point to the fact that silver has depreciated in value until the metal in the standard dollars is not worth over 65 cents an ounce. In a speech in the United States senate, published in the Congressional Record of January 5, 1893, Senator Stewart gave the cause of the depreciation in the value of silver in his forcible manner as follows:

"The most unreasonable argument used by the defenders of the act of 1873, demonetizing silver, is the suggestion that the silver in the silver dollar is not worth a dollar in gold. While 412½ grains of standard silver, which constitute a dollar, could be taken to the mint and coined, such quantity of silver was always worth as much as the 25.8 grains of gold which was contained in the gold dollar. It was the exclusion of silver from the mint which destroyed the market, impaired its value, and enhanced the value of gold."

Milk and Whisky.

It is now reported that Thaxter will swear out a warrant for Sam Davis' arrest for peddling milk in the city without a license.—Tribune.

Nothing would suit the Holstein Ranch better than to have a milk peddler's license established in this city.

While the young man is on his line of securing city revenue, he might turn his attention to his father's case when he was arrested for selling whisky without a license and after midnight, contrary to one of the laws he passed himself.

The case was called several times in the Justice Court some years ago but Mr. Thaxter never faced the trial.

It was then allowed to slide in a gentle and unobtrusive manner from the calendar and so Mr. Thaxter's pull stood him in hand, and he never was punished.

We are willing to have the milk and whisky cases tried in the same court.

Should Come to Nevada.

The Bar Association, of San Francisco has discarded two notorious rascals named Naphthal and Howe. The first for robbing a woman of money and the other for some crooked divorce transactions.

These men have been a stench in the nostrils of the legal profession for many years, but after repeated trials the Bar Association has kicked them out.

These men will now doubtless come to Nevada where there is no Bar Association and where lawyers who are thieves and blackmailers cannot be disturbed in their chosen vocation of robbery and extortion. Let them come to Nevada by all means. There is still room at the top.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Deputy State Controller and his assistant take exceptions to the APPEAL criticisms and claim that they keep the best set of books in town. We will admit their superiority as bookkeepers, but if there should be an illegal claim passed by the Capitol Board there would be no one in the Controller's office to veto it. The principle should be there at his post of duty.

Jim Corbett is having an ovation in San Francisco and posing as the champion of the earth. If the pug loving element who are worshipping him would just stop and think a moment, they would begin to wonder why he calls himself the champion and still refuses to fight Pete Jackson, who has challenged him again and again.

Bogus checks are in circulation in Reno. Sam Armanke of the Arcade cashed a $10 check for some strangers Tuesday evening and the next day ascertained that the check was a bogus one. Sam can identify the strangers but the trouble will be to get them within his observation for that purpose.

Tamale eaters in Sacramento were horrified to learn that Mrs. Garcia, a Spanish woman who has been for some time making the tamales, has the leprosy.
